National City Residents Haul Thousands of Pounds of Trash to Disposal Event

I Love A Clean San Diego (ILACSD) collects almost 40,000 pounds of trash!

San Diego, CA – Community members proved keeping their neighborhood clean is a top priority. More than 150 people came out to properly dispose of large trash items at ILACSD's disposal event over the weekend. A record 39,340 pounds of trash was collected at El Toyon Recreation Center and Granger Junior High School. The trash included old furniture, fencing, green waste, television sets, mattresses barbeques and much more. The disposal event began at 8:00 am and a total of 7 dumpsters at both the sites were filled to capacity by 10:45 am. This shows how residents and ILACSD are taking a proactive approach to eliminate waste.
